

Ensure Compliance with STCW 2010

ISF On Board Training Record Book for Deck Ratings including new STCW grade of 'Able Seafarer Deck'

The 2010 amendments to the IMO STCW Convention, which enter into force in 2012, will make it mandatory for trainee deck ratings to use an approved training record book to provide evidence of structured on board training. This includes ratings seeking to qualify for the new STCW grade of 'Able Seafarer Deck'.

Most Flag States are expected to require ratings to be certificated as Able Seafarer Deck as part of their minimum safe manning requirements.

To help employers ensure compliance with STCW 2010, ISF has updated and expanded its widely used On Board Training Record Book for Deck Ratings.

The revised book takes full account of the competence standards stipulated by STCW 2010 including those adopted for the new grade of Able Seafarer Deck. The training tasks included have been developed to ensure that trainees make the best use of their seagoing service, and to help supervising officers make an objective evaluation of whether trainees are competent.

The ISF Training Record Book for Deck Ratings can be used by any trainee following an on board training programme in order to be certificated as a rating forming part of a navigational watch and/or as an Able Seafarer Deck.

The ISF On Board Training Record Book for Deck Ratings:

- Is significantly expanded to cover the new grade of Able Seafarer Deck
- Takes full account of new STCW 2010 competence standards

The books are priced at £25. Five or more books can be ordered for £18 per copy.
