Special thanks are extended to the:

- Members of the Steering Committee for providing their advice and guidance during all phases of the project. They have ensured that the report provides useful data and information for the maritime industry;
- Maritime and Port Authority (MPA) of Singapore for the provision of crew data for ships visiting its port over the period of one month. This data provided invaluable information on crewing arrangements for a variety of ship types and
- International Maritime Contractors Association (IMCA) for assistance with information and advice concerning the offshore sector.

As the report has been prepared for the industry by the industry, BIMCO and ICS greatly appreciate all the assistance, time and effort of BIMCO and ICS members, and all persons, companies and organisations that completed questionnaires, surveys or furnished information as part of the project.
